MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Request from [REDACTED] for Meeting with Administration Official to Discuss Possible
Ways to Get his Wife Out of Moscow

b6

[REDACTED] has written you, at the suggestion of Dennis Archer, to request your help in arranging a meeting with an appropriate Administration official to discuss the problems he and others have encountered in obtaining permission for their Soviet spouses to emigrate. I talked to [REDACTED] when he called your office yesterday, and told him that we would refer the matter to the NSC. [REDACTED] indicated that he had been in communication with the NSC himself, and remained hopeful that something could be done prior to or at the summit.

b6

I see no legal problems with the NSC considering this issue. The only remotely possible question would be fraudulent marriage for immigration purposes, but there is no suggestion of that. In a possible excess of caution, however, we should at least note that NSC should at some point check with INS, assuming this matter goes forward. In light of my conversation with [REDACTED] I see no need for you to reply to his letter.

MEMORANDUM FOR PAUL THOMPSON
GENERAL COUNSEL
MILITARY ASSISTANT TO THE ASSISTANT TO THE
PRESIDENT FOR NATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Request from [REDACTED] for Meeting with
Administration Official to Discuss Possible
Ways to Get his Wife Out of Moscow

b6b6

In the attached correspondence, [REDACTED] requests a meeting to discuss the problems he and others have encountered in seeking permission from the Soviet government for their Soviet spouses to emigrate. I understand that [REDACTED] has also raised this directly with the NSC, and I am accordingly referring his correspondence to you for whatever action or other staffing within NSC you consider appropriate. The only suggestion I would make, if a decision is made to proceed with this matter in some fashion, is that you check with INS to ensure that there are no problems on our side of this immigration question.
